

ICICLE FUND

Supporting the environment, the arts and history in the Wenatchee River watershed and neighboring landscapes, through innovative collaboration

GRANT TYPES

Operating Support

Unrestricted funds to support an organization's mission. Operating support is generally thought of in terms of day to day ongoing expenses, such as salaries, utilities, office supplies, etc.. It includes capital asset stewardship (although not capital improvements)

A subtype of operating support is seed money that is used to start a new organization.

Program

Restricted funds to support specific new or ongoing programs or projects. Such grants may include funds for administrative overhead

Capacity Building (Technical Assistance)

Restricted funds for specific, time-limited projects to improve the operations of the organization. Such projects would include technology purchases and upgrades (under $5,000), board and staff training, strategic planning, consultants etc.

Capital

Restricted funds that increase the assets of an organization, including endowments and the purchase or construction of a new facility, renovation or addition to an existing facility, or purchase equipment with an expected useful life of three or more years (or over $5,000).
